Magnus Ögren

has successfully participated in the

2010 Faculty of Engineering Docent Course

The course corresponds to three weeks of fulltime studies of which two weeks are recognised within the compulsory higher education academic teacher training framework.

The following aspects were treated:

- The docent requirements, role and work tasks at LTH
- Research supervision (cf. LU policy Dnr I G 51 6636/2003)
- Education on the doctoral level
- Scientific presentation feedback and strategies
- Academic conduct in research

Course participants were required to take active part in all course activities, and to conduct, discuss, report and defend analyses and investigations into selected aspects of doctoral training at LTH.
